TERRITORIAL REPUBLICAN TICKET. For Delegate to Congress: GEORGE W. CHEYNEY, OF COCHISE.

For Joint Counselman, Northern District: J. M. W. MOORE, OF YAVAPAI.

For Joint Counselman, Southern District: W. F. NICHOLS, OF COCHISE.

C. MEYER ZULICK, of New Jersey, will be the worst slaughtered man on the Democratic ticket.

Reports from the Arkansas election show the necessity for the passage of the Lodge election law.

PHOENIX should go slow in giving away any more valuable franchises. Too many have been given away already.

As for all that Mark Smith has done for Arizona in Congress the last two years, the Territory might as well have been without a delegate in Washington.

At last the leaders in another of Kentucky's famous feuds have been captured. It is sincerely to be hoped that they may meet with a speedy and just finish at the end of a piece of Kentucky hemp.

PORTUGAL has requested an American ship-building firm to submit plans for four new cruisers. This shows how the ship-building industry is regaining its old prestige under a Republican administration.

EMPEROR WILLIAM shows repeatedly that he is a man of nerve, and during the great storm on his return from Russia demonstrated that he was equally as fearless a sailor as he is a horseman.

The famous cowboy wedding on horseback, which occurred in Gila County, a few weeks ago, an account of which first appeared in THE REPUBLICAN, is a subject for illustration in a recent number of the Police Gazette.

OPium smugglers are still at work notwithstanding the vigilance of the officers and the two big seizures at San Francisco the last week shows the extent to which men will go, to bring the deadly drug to this country.

With all the prominent Paris papers opposing the continued prohibition of American pork it looks as though the pressure upon the government would become so strong that the obnoxious measure would be repealed.

SHOULD matters in the Hawaiian Kingdom reach a state of anarchy it is to be hoped that the orders to Admiral Brown are as implicit as were those of Secretary Bancroft to the Pacific Commander in 1844 regarding California.

SENIOR MENDONÇA assures us that Brazil is ready to do all she can towards reciprocal trade with the United States, and there is little doubt but all the South American states will make equal concessions with Brazil. Reciprocity is sure to come.

THE REPUBLICAN would like to ask some of its Democratic contemporaries what Mark Smith has done for Arizona in Congress during his two terms? Point us out, please, a single measure for the good of the Territory that Marcus A. ever had introduced and pushed through Congress?

PHOENIX will be a city of not less than 25,000 inhabitants by 1900 and to give away absolutely all the privileges of laying gas mains, erecting telephone lines, sewers and street railroads for fifty years without any remuneration from the grantees is an injustice to the city that should be met by injunctions by the courts.

ACCORDING to the Topeka Capital a large portion of the Kansas farm mortgages, which our Democratic friends have been so free to hold up as an example of the oppression of the protective tariff, were given on unoccupied lands which were bought up for speculation and then mortgaged for what they would bring. Thus, one by one, do their mushroom arguments collapse.

The National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union is said to have more than 2,000,000 names on the membership roll. It has 70,000 secretaries. The order is fully organized in Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, the Dakotas, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Missouri, Mississippi, the Carolinas, Tennessee, Texas, Wisconsin, Ohio and Illinois. There is a similar organization composed of colored men, with a million members belonging to thirty States. White men are not admitted into the alliance of the colored men, and colored men may not join the white men's union; but the two bodies work in harmony.

THE El Paso (Texas) Herald has the following very complimentary notice of the Republican nominee for Congress in this Territory: "George W. Cheyney, of Tombstone, has been nominated for Delegate to Congress at the hands of the Republican party of Arizona. He is a splendid citizen in every respect. He is young, energetic and progressive; an honorable business man who has made money and at the same time advanced the material interests of the Territory. He is nearly certain to receive a larger number of votes in Cochise county than Mark Smith, but the latter will have the following support of the Mormon vote. The politics of Arizona are very uncertain and Mark Smith, with all his eloquence and personal magnetism, his two thousand majority at the election in 1888 and his large following in the disciples of Brigham Young, will, when the votes are counted, find himself plunged in the slough of despond and defeat."

SPEAKING of the prospects and actual benefits which the farmers of the great northwest and other cereal-growing districts are likely to reap this fall and winter as a result of their labor, Jay Gould substantially says that the difference in money that will go to the grower of wheat, corn, rye, barley and such grain generally will be between $400,000,000 and $500,000,000 more this year than last. On corn alone, taking the present market quotation as compared with 1888, and figuring that the crop is, as estimated, but 1,600,000,000 bushels as against 2,000,000,000 bushels last year, there will be in round figures something like $200,000,000 additional profit to sellers. He lays great stress upon the fact that there will be short crops in many parts of Europe; this will necessitate correspondingly large exports.

SPEAKING of the defeat of the pet schemes of Major Powell which have done so much damage to all the great West and particularly to this Territory, the Santa Fe New Mexican well says: "As Senator Teller had occasion to remark in the Senate the other day, Senator Reagan's solicitude for the people of the West is truly touching. Reagan has all through the present session supported the covetous Powell in his schemes to fasten the grip of the geological survey on the throats of the western arid land settlers and he has quite as vehemently fought the interests of the silver and lead miners of the West by undertaking to have the cheap leads of Mexico peon labor admitted to this country free of duty. Had his efforts succeeded New Mexico would have been a very great sufferer. But fortunately and notwithstanding the fact that New Mexico had at Washington no one to represent the real interests of her people, the Republican Senators and Congressmen from the new states of Montana, Washington and the Dakotas promptly joined hands with the Colorado delegation and brought to bear upon Congress arguments so potent as to completely annihilate the Democratic statesman from Texas and his tool friends. The triumph for the West as respects both the arid lands and the mining industry is alone due to Republican influence in Congress."

THE SUPREME COURT. Adjourning Session Opened in Phoenix—Several Motions Made.

The Supreme Court of the Territory of Arizona met yesterday in adjourned session in the Court House in this city. There was present the full bench, consisting of Chief Justice Gooding and Associate Justices Kibbey and Sloan. J. E. Boyd was appointed crier and G. H. Chapman bailiff. In the case of F. M. Murphy, plaintiff appellee, vs. W. A. Clark, defendant and respondent, a motion was made for a diminution of the record. In the case of the Territory of Arizona vs. the Delinquent Tax List of Apache County for the year 1888, a motion was made by Clark Churchill, Attorney General, to strike out the stipulation made by the Board of Supervisors of said county. This is a case where the Board of Supervisors of Apache county compromised a tax suit against the Atlantic and Pacific Railway for a fixed sum, much below that due from the company on the regular assessment roll. Willis O. Huson was admitted to practice. E. J. Edwards moved the Court that a committee be appointed to draft suitable resolutions upon the death of Mrs. Margaretta Churchill, wife of Attorney General Churchill. As such committee were appointed Messrs. Edwards, Ainsworth, Alexander, Williams and Sanford. Court then adjourned to 10 a. m. today.
